Re: Blue Spike, LLC v. Texas Instruments, Meet and Confer Required

Sure Sarah, we appreciate your patience and following up. Last night's possible joint court filing made us unavailable at the time you indicated. However, 1:30 pm Central works for us, if that is good for you.

Be well,

I am available this Friday to discuss this issue with you, just let me know a time. Obviously, tomorrow is not the best time given the parties' joint submission to the Court and scheduled meet and confer.

Peter,

We still have not heard from you regarding our meet and confer request. Regarding the need to name the proper party in the complaint, please see attached Clear Channel's fifth production, which includes documentation demonstrating that Clear Channel Management Services, Inc., owns RCS, and therefore, Media Monitors and MediaBase.

Please provide Blue Spike's lead counsel's availability to meet and confer on Wednesday or Thursday afternoon (Pacific), or anytime on Friday, and be prepared to discuss all of the outstanding items below. Clear Channel will provide a dial-in number once we have agreed upon a time.

Regards,
Sarah
